

COOKIE POLICY

1 WHY THIS COOKIE POLICY

Cassius (hereinafter: "We," "Us") wishes to clearly inform you about how we use cookies and why they are stored on your device with this Cookie Policy.

By using cookies, we can make your visit to our website more enjoyable and better tailored to your needs and preferences.

Our registered office is located in Belgium and is therefore subject to the European Privacy Regulation, as well as any transpositions thereof into Belgian law, and the Personal Data Protection Act insofar as it does not conflict with European legislation.

2 WHAT ARE COOKIES?

A cookie is a small text or number file that is stored on your device (PC, laptop, smartphone, tablet, etc.) when you visit this website. These text or number files store information about your use. When you visit the website again at a later time, the file is sent back to the website. This allows the website to recognize your browser.

3 WHY DO WE USE COOKIES?

The use of cookies enables us to optimize your visit to our website. They can be divided according to their origin and the function they perform.

Functional cookies are cookies that ensure that the website functions properly, such as user names, language preferences, etc. To make optimal use of our website, we recommend that you activate and/or accept these cookies on your device.

Non-functional cookies are cookies that have nothing to do with the mere functioning of the website. They are used for statistical and marketing purposes, among other things.

4 You

You can withdraw your consent to the use of cookies at any time. You can do this by activating the browser setting that allows you to refuse the placement of cookies (see the "Options" or "Preferences" menu, depending on your web browser).

If you use this option, please note that you may not be able to access (certain parts of) our website.
